Coleman, a popular young citizen of Norfolk, to Miss Mamie A. Hanrahan, aghter of Mr. James Hanrahan, a wellknown merchant of this city. The cereny was a simple but very beautiful one. Rev. Father T. J. O'Farrell, the pastor of the church, officiated. THE USHERS.

There were no waiters. The following rentemen acted as ushers: Mr. E. W. Wilburn, a Washington; Mr. James Corrigan, of Lyncharg; and Messrs. Thomas O'Farrell and John Isnrahan, of Petersburg—the latter a brother of the bride. Two beautiful little girs—Misses and Maggie Balley, daughters of Mr. havid Balley—acted as maids of honor and bearing bouquets of Marcchal Nell roses gracefully receded the wedding party down the aisle to the liter.

The bride, tastefully dressed in a tan travelling suit, green marabout trimming, with hat, toque, gloves, and slippers to match, entered upon the arm of her brother, Mr. John Ha nrahan, while the groom was accompanied by his best, man-Mr. E. W. Wildurn. The ceremony over, the happy couple left on the 5:30 train on a trip to the North, whence they will return to their home in Norlolk.

ARROW ESCAPE.

As the passenger train from Norfolk was nearing the depot this morning the engine struck a wagon laden with lumber belonging to Messra. Marks & Friend, which was attempting to cross the track. The wagon was broken and the lumber scattered, and the driver, William Morgan, was considerably sajured.

NORFOLE, Va., June 16.—Some of the truckers of Norfolk county declare that not more than a half crop of Irish potatoes has been made this season owing to the excessive rains and the subsequent freeze. Others think the yield will be 60 per cent. The prices keep up splendidly, however, and the result altogether is satisfactory to the growers. The shipment of small fruits is over for the season and the truckers having done well will soon be off on their summer vacation to the mountains and seashore.

SUNDAY-LIQUOR LAW.

The Liquor-Dealers' Association adopted a constitution and by-laws hast night. One of the principal sections provides for an executive committee, which, among other things, is empowered to do everything necessary to break up the violations of the liquor laws, especially the selling of liquor on Sunday. At present Norfolk is considered by visitors a very dry town on the Sabbath. abbath.

RESISTED ABUEST.

Great excitement was caused on William street to-day by the arrest of L. Rosenbaum and his commitment to jail for selling liquor without license. When the order of arrest was read to Rosenbaum by Detective Prince he resisted the officer and called a friend to his assistance. Frince caught hold of Rosenbaum, who broke from him, and the officer thereupon struck him twice, which caused Rosenbaum to cry out for his friend. A large crowd soon gathered, but the officer took his prisener to jail, where he was turned over to the jailor.
